The Art of Sushi

Sonoda's has perfected the art of seafood and sushi preparation. If you wanted seafood any fresher... you would have to catch it yourself!

Sonoda's has been serving Denver's freshest sushi and seafood ever since owner Kenny Sonoda opened his first location in Aurora over fifteen years ago. His dynamic and creative sushi chefs continue to surprise even the most discriminating sushi lover. With the freshness of his sushi (orders of fresh fish are flown in daily from around the globe) and artful presentation of classic Japanese dishes like Tempura, Sonoda's has gained strong popularity in Denver.

Sonoda's has four Denver metro locations and all share the common thread of a lively atmosphere, smooth service, sushi that melts in your mouth and a Japanese seafood menu you won't soon forget.

Sonoda's invites you to come experience classic sushi served the way it's supposed to be.
